The image features a vibrant, stylized illustration of poppy flowers. The petals are rendered in a rich palette of warm colors, including deep reds, oranges, yellows, and light pinks, with intricate line work defining the texture and folds. The centers of the flowers are dark, with prominent stamens and green, spiral-patterned pistils. The background is a soft, textured wash of yellow and light green, suggesting a field of flowers. In the upper left, a dark, rounded seed pod is visible. The overall style is artistic and detailed, typical of a fashion catalog cover.
